

Too Late To Classify: December

About Town.us

1850 HOUSE & TAVERN

Phone & fax: 845-658-7800 from 7am-10pm.

435 Main St., Rosendale. 1850house@gmail.com www.the1850house.com.

Happy Hour

4:00 - 6:00 Wednesday-Sunday

$4 Appetizers

$4 1850 House Drafts

Daily Drink Special

Wednesday Game Night Beginning December 12, 2018

Dinner 4:00 - 9:00

Bar 4:00 - Close

$8 Pasta Entrees

$4 1850 House Drafts

Games in the Tavern/Lounge

(Food or Drink Purchase Required)

Throwback Thursdays Beginning December 13, 2018

Dinner 4:00 - 9:00. Bar 4:00 - Close

2 for 1 Entrees

$4 1850 House Drafts

Movies & Music from Different Decades

Sunday Funday Beginning December 16, 2018

Sunday Funday kicks off with our Holiday

Open House Party December 16th from 3:30-6:30

Complimentary Hors D'ouvres

Cash Bar

Door Prizes

After December 16th join us each Sunday

Dinner 4:00 - 9:00. Bar 4:00 - Close

$10 Burger

$4 1850 House Drafts

Football & Entertainment

STAATSBURG LIBRARY

LIBRARY HOURS

Monday: 10-12 and 2-8, Tuesday: closed. Wednesday: 10-12 and 2-8. Thursday: 2-5. Friday: 2-8. Saturday: 10-2. Sunday: closed
Staatsburg, NY 12580

Saturday's – Ongoing

10:00 a.m.-12:00 a.m.

Purl Jam Knitters and Crocheting Group

Lively conversation, quick needles and an interest in handicrafts join the members of Purl Jam. If you enjoy knitting, crocheting or doing other needle arts, join in the fun. This program is free and open to the public.

Ongoing

Handmade With Love:

Staatsburg Library Scarf Donation Project

Purl Jam Knitters and Crocheting Group

It may be warm outside now but we are gearing-up for cooler temperatures!

Calling all knitters, crocheters & fiber arts enthusiasts - we are celebrating the opportunity to give love and receive love. How warm and fuzzy is that!

At the Library, you will find the following for our Scarves for Donation Project:

Containers Labeled for:

Donations of Yarn

Completed Scarves

Message Tags, Safety Pins & Notebook

Baggies

Looking for scarves for children and adults. We will be distributing them to local organizations, food pantries, post offices, churches, Meals on Wheels recipients, and leaving them all around town.

If you choose to bring your scarves to a specific place, please write the name in the notebook provided. It will enable us to keep track of where the scarves are being dropped off. If you would like further information you can visit the library on Saturday mornings (10 am - 12 pm) and speak with our Purl Jam Knitters group or call us at 889-4683..

Continues on next page.

STAATSBURG LIBRARY PAGE 2

Ongoing

What the Tech?

Windows PC Instruction & Assistance

BY APPOINTMENT

Call 889-4683 to schedule

Want to know more about your laptop or desktop computer and how to use them?

Our friend Ross Uhlfelder will answer computer questions and help you to better understand and use your computer.

Topics may include:

*Paying bills and accessing investments or bank accounts safely and securely

*Storing email, files, and other personal data

*Defining a browser, search engine, email client, private network or public network,

*Managing Windows quirks, updates, and messages

*And much more!

Bring your questions and your laptop (if you have one).

Monday, December 3, 10 & 17

2:00 p.m.

Mah Jongg Mondays

Join our group of "Mah Jonggers" for a fun and friendly game of Mah Jongg. If you want to learn how to play, watch and ask questions between hands. Games depend on the number of players available - No registration necessary. Call the library 889-4683 to confirm there is a game.

Monday, December 3

7:00 p.m.

Mock Caldecott Meeting at the Staatsburg Library

Calling all adults, teens & kids who love picture books!

Join other book and art enthusiasts in reading, discussing and evaluating this year's crop of beautiful books. The Randolph Caldecott Medal is awarded annually to the artist of the most distinguished American picture book published in the United States the previous year.

Nominated Books are available for review at your convenience in the Staatsburg Library

Program Room or order your copies from the library catalog. Kick-off and wrap-up meetings alternate location between Hyde Park and Staatsburg Libraries. THIS MEETING IS AT THE STAATSBURG LIBRARY.

Friday, December 7

6:30 p.m.—8:00 p.m.

Family Holiday Party

Bring the whole family to our annual holiday party! Join us for an evening of holiday joy and cheer. There will be holiday music and sing-along with singer & guitarist Lisa Markley (6:30 at St. Margaret's Church - across the street from the library), fun holiday crafts, yummy treats to enjoy, and take a picture with our special guest (hint - he'll be the one with the red suit and white beard!)

Thursday, December 13

6:00 p.m.

Write It Out - A Writing Group for Parents, Caregivers, Family Members & Educators of Children with Special Needs

A writing group for parents, caregivers, family members and educators of children with special needs. This is a safe space to share and explore thoughts and feelings! This group meets regularly at the library throughout the year and is facilitated by Diana Rush, a writer and parent. Diana will help participants use writing as a means to sort through some of the unique challenges and victories of parenting and working with these special kids. Everyone is welcome and no writing experience is necessary.

Thursday, December 13

6:30 p.m.

Lights, Camera, Action!

Opportunities in the Local Film/TV Industry
Hudson Valley Film Commission

So you want to be in the movies? The Hudson Valley Film Commission will hold a workshop at the Staatsburg Library to help educate and involve local residents and business owners in the growing film and television industry, which offers many different educational, job and creative opportunities.

Film Commission Director Laurent Rejto will give participants a background on film and television work including pre-production, production and post production and we'll answer any questions that may arise including:

What kind of crew members and actors do local productions need?

What kind of vendors do local productions need?

How do I get myself or my business involved?

What can I do to put myself in front of the decision-makers in the film industry?

For the past 18 years, the Hudson Valley Film Commission has promoted and created sustainable economic development by supporting and attracting film, video and media production in the region. We have helped with cast & crew referrals, locations, permits, vendors and much more!

Saturday, December 15

10:00 a.m.

Christmas in the Gilded Age:

Presentation & Christmas Cracker Craft Workshop

Staatsburgh State Historic Site staff, Maria Reynolds and Pam Malcolm, will offer a brief description of Christmas traditions in the Gilded Age, then lead participants in making a Christmas cracker, a traditional British gift that was also popular in the American Gilded Age. Participants (age 12 to adult) can create a cracker to give as a gift. Crackers are pulled apart with a crack, to reveal small presents inside. You can bring your own special (small) presents to place in your cracker, or use the ones we provide.

Continues on next page

Tuesday, December 18

7 p.m.

Adult Book Club

The adult book club is a dynamic group of readers that meet monthly for fun and lively discussions about a vast array of books, from contemporary to the classics. December Meeting: Holiday Potluck - choose a genre of literature that you would like to share with the group. Each member will talk about why they chose to share their particular choice(s), which is a great way to enjoy food, drink and literature. Please feel free to bring an original work of your own, if you so desire.

Bring sweet or savory finger foods to share.

Wednesday, December 19

6:30 p.m.

Adult Mystery Book Club

The adult mystery book club is a dynamic group of readers that meet monthly for fun and lively discussions about a vast array of mystery books, from contemporary to the classics.

December Book Selection: A Catered Christmas Cookie Exchange by Isis Crawford

The Library will be CLOSED Monday, December 24 for Christmas Eve & Tuesday, December 25 for Christmas Day.

Thursday, December 27

6:00 p.m.

Group Ukulele Jam

Join our resident musician (and library clerk) Lisa Markley for some Ukulele fun! All levels of experience welcome! Bring your own instrument as we have a limited number of ukuleles that can be borrowed. To request a Ukulele to borrow, call the library 889-4683.

This program is for 4th graders - adults.

The Library will be CLOSED Monday, December 31 for New Year's Eve & Tuesday, January 1 for New Year's Day.

Monday, January 7

7:00 p.m.

Mock Caldecott Meeting at the Staatsburg Library

Calling all adults, teens & kids who love picture books!

Join other book and art enthusiasts in reading, discussing and evaluating this year's crop of beautiful books. The Randolph Caldecott Medal is awarded annually to the artist of the most distinguished American picture book published in the United States the previous year.

Nominated Books are available for review at your convenience in the Staatsburg Library Program Room or order your copies from the library catalog. Kick-off and wrap-up meetings alternate location between Hyde Park and Staatsburg Libraries. THIS MEETING IS AT THE STAATSBURG LIBRARY.

Tuesday, January 8

7:00 p.m.

STANZAS - A Poetry Circle

Bring a one page poem by a published poet inspired by the theme: LEADERS. If possible bring 5 copies of your poem, to pass around to the group. This is NOT a poetry writing workshop, this is simply a gathering of poetry enthusiasts who wish to share their favorite poems and thoughts on poetry.

Wednesday, January 9

7:00 p.m.

Robert Moses In the Hudson Valley

Alan Stauber - Founder, HV Historic Preservation

This talk will focus on Robert Moses' presence in the Hudson Valley, including research and perspective on the Moses directed acquisition of properties in Staatsburg such as the Hoyt family estate. Robert Moses served as chairman of the New York State Council of Parks from 1924 until the 1960's, along with his many other positions, often held simultaneously. Those posts formed the basis of his vast influence over public works projects in New York State during that period.

Alan Strauber is on the adjunct U.S. History faculty at Marist College and Westchester Community College, specializing in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries. He is the founder of HV Historic Preservation and the principal founder of Calvert Vaux Preservation Alliance. Strauber is a long time advocate for the preservation of historic architecture and landscape design in New York State, particularly the Hudson Valley region.

Saturday, January 12

2:00 p.m.

Raptors & Reptiles Wildlife Show

With Bill & Brian Robinson

Want to meet hawks, falcons, owls and reptiles close up? Our good friend Bill Robinson will once again bring his feathered and slithering friends to the library for an exciting wildlife program! This program will be held at St. Margaret's Church – directly across the street from the library. THIS PROGRAM IS FOR ALL AGES!

Youth and Family Programs

Tuesdays & Thursdays

December 4, 6, 18 & 20

10:00 a.m.

Preschool Story Time

(Same Program on Tuesday/Thursday) Stories, crafts and other activities make this preschool story time a great introduction to books and literacy. Children must be accompanied by a caretaker.

Continues on next page

Wednesdays

December 5, & 19

NO PROGRAM December 12

10:00 a.m.

Babies & Books - Lapsit Program
(Birth - 24 Months)

Join Miss Sarah for this program specifically for infants and babies (Birth – 24 Months). Using songs, rhymes, fingerplay, puppets and more this program is geared to promote the development of early literacy skills, motor coordination and provide opportunities for social interaction.

Wednesday, December 5

4:30 p.m.

Girls Book Club

(5th & 6th Grade)

A book club for girls in 5th & 6th grade who love to read. Join Miss Lisa for a book discussion and craft. December Reading Selection: All Summer Long by Hope Larson.

Friday, December 7

6:30 p.m.–8:00 p.m.

Family Holiday Party

Bring the whole family to our annual holiday party! Join us for an evening of holiday joy and cheer. There will be holiday music and sing-along with singer & guitarist Lisa Markley (6:30 at St. Margaret's Church - across the street from the library), fun holiday crafts, yummy treats to enjoy, and take a picture with our special guest (hint - he'll be the one with the red suit and white beard!)

Monday, December 10

1:00 p.m.

MENSA Book Club

Take part in a book discussion group as part of the MENSA for Kids excellence in reading program. Participants will read and discuss books from the MENSA book list for 9th - 12th grade. Contact the circulation desk to order a copy of the book.

December Book Selection - Of Mice and Men by John Steinbeck

Tuesday & Thursday

December 11 & 14

10:00 a.m.

Motion Commotion

(Same Program on Tuesday/Thursday).

Music and movement program including songs, instruments, rhymes and interactive play for children ages 2-5. Active participation of a caregiver is required.

Wednesday, December 12

10:00 a.m.

Holiday Storytime at Mills Mansion

Reservations Required 845-889-8851 (Mills Mansion)

We are taking our show on the road! Preschool age children are invited to gather around the Christmas tree in Mills Mansion for a special storytime led by Staatsburg Library's Miss Lisa. All children must be accompanied by an adult. This program is free. Spaces are limited - RESERVATIONS REQUIRED call 845-889-8851 to reserve your spot.

Thursday, December 13

6:30 p.m.

Lights, Camera, Action!

Opportunities in the Local Film/TV Industry
Hudson Valley Film Commission

So you want to be in the movies? The Hudson Valley Film Commission will hold a workshop at the Staatsburg Library to help educate and involve local residents and business owners in the growing film and television industry, which offers many different educational, job and creative opportunities.

Film Commission Director Laurent Rejto will give participants a background on film and television work including pre-production, production and post production and we'll answer any questions that may arise including:

What kind of crew members and actors do local productions need?

What kind of vendors do local productions need?

How do I get myself or my business involved?

What can I do to put myself in front of the decision-makers in the film industry?

For the past 18 years, the Hudson Valley Film Commission has promoted and created sustainable economic development by supporting and attracting film, video and media production in the region. We have helped with cast & crew referrals, locations, permits, vendors and much more!

Friday, December 14

6:30 p.m.

Lego Club

If you can dream it, you can build it – with Lego! Future engineers, architects and visionaries are invited to show off their handiwork during this exciting evening of friends, family and Lego. We have tons of Lego to use and each night has a unique theme for building inspiration. Children must be accompanied by a caretaker.

Saturday, December 15

10:00 a.m.

Christmas in the Gilded Age:

Presentation & Christmas Cracker Craft Workshop

Staatsburgh State Historic Site staff, Maria Reynolds and Pam Malcolm, will offer a brief description of Christmas traditions in the Gilded Age, then lead participants in making a Christmas cracker, a traditional British gift that was also popular in the American Gilded Age. Participants (age 12 to adult) can create a cracker to give as a gift. Crackers are pulled apart with a crack, to reveal small presents inside. You can bring your own special (small) presents to place in your cracker, or use the ones we provide. Continues on next page

Wednesday, December 19

4:30 p.m.

Girls Book Club
(3rd & 4th Grade)

A book club for girls in 3rd and 4th grade who love to read. Join Miss Lisa for a book discussion, crafts, games and FUN!

December Reading Selection: Counting to Perfect by Suzanne LaFleur

The Library will be CLOSED Monday, December 24 for Christmas Eve & Tuesday, December 25 for Christmas Day.

Thursday, December 27

6:00 p.m.

Group Ukulele Jam

Join our resident musician (and library clerk) Lisa Markley for some Ukulele fun!

All levels of experience welcome!

Bring your own instrument as we have a limited number of ukuleles that can be borrowed. To request a Ukulele to borrow, call the library 889-4683.

This program is for 4th graders - adults.

The Library will be CLOSED Monday, December 31 for New Year's Eve & Tuesday, January 1 for New Year's Day.

Friday, January 4

6:30 p.m.

Magic Tree House Book Club

Follow the adventures of Jack and Annie with the Magic Tree House Book Club. Each month the group meets to discuss a title, make crafts, and have fun. Order your book from the library now.

January Book Selection: Eve of the Emperor Penguin (Book #40)

Monday, January 7

7:00 p.m.

Mock Caldecott Meeting at the Staatsburg Library

Calling all adults, teens & kids who love picture books!

Join other book and art enthusiasts in reading, discussing and evaluating this year's crop of beautiful books. The Randolph Caldecott Medal is awarded annually to the artist of the most distinguished American picture book published in the United States the previous year.

Nominated Books are available for review at your convenience in the Staatsburg Library Program Room or order your copies from the library catalog. Kick-off and wrap-up meetings alternate location between Hyde Park and Staatsburg Libraries. THIS MEETING IS AT THE STAATSBURG LIBRARY.

Saturday, January 12

2:00 p.m.

Raptors & Reptiles Wildlife Show
With Bill & Brian Robinson

Want to meet hawks, falcons, owls and reptiles close up? Our good friend Bill Robinson will once again bring his feathered and slithering friends to the library for an exciting wildlife program! This program will be held at St. Margaret's Church – directly across the street from the library. THIS PROGRAM IS FOR ALL AGES!